Friday 14th March 17.15 - 19.00 CET

KIT Institute Amsterdam

We invite you to attend the launch of "It's a Journey: A Graphic Medicine Exploration of Endometriosis and Gender Diversity" an innovative graphic novel that merges personal narratives, medical insights, and research.

Authors Asiel and Dr. Maddalena Giacomozzi, along with scientific supervisor Prof. Dr. Annemiek Nap, will present the book and engage in a discussion regarding its significance in advancing research, policy and practice related to endometriosis and gender diversity. Following the presentation, there will be an opportunity for a Q&A session with the authors and experts. A fansigning event will also take place, followed by a casual borrel.
